

NEWPORT GIRLS' HIGH SCHOOL ACADEMY TRUST

RELATIONSHIP, SEX AND HEALTH EDUCATION POLICY

Policy written by:	Director of PE, Sport and PSHE
Policy written/reviewed:	Reviewed August 2024
Next review due:	September 2025
Statutory Governor Approval:	Due Autumn 2024

1. Aims

The aims of relationships and sex education (RSE) at our school are to:

- Provide a framework in which sensitive discussions can take place
- Prepare pupils for puberty, and give them an understanding of sexual development and the importance of health and hygiene
- Help pupils develop feelings of self-respect, confidence and empathy
- Create a positive culture around issues of sexuality and relationships
- Teach pupils the correct vocabulary to describe themselves and their bodies

2. Statutory requirements

As a secondary academy school we must provide RSHE to all pupils as per section 34 of the Children and Social work act 2017. In teaching RSHE, we are required by our funding agreements to have regard to guidance issued by the secretary of state as outlined in section 403 of the Education Act 1996. At Newport Girls' High School we teach RSHE as set out in this policy.

3. Definition

- RSE is about the emotional, social and cultural development of pupils, and involves learning about relationships, sexual health, sexuality, healthy lifestyles, diversity and personal identity.
- RSE involves a combination of sharing information, and exploring issues and values.
- RSE is not about the promotion of sexual activity.

4. Curriculum

Our curriculum plan is set out in Appendix I. If pupils ask questions outside the scope of this curriculum plan, teachers will respond in an appropriate manner so they are fully informed and don't seek answers online.

6. Delivery of RSE

RSE is taught within the personal, social, health and economic (PSHE) education curriculum. Biological aspects of RSE are taught within the science curriculum, and other aspects are included in religious education (RE).

Pupils in Years 9 and 10 also receive stand-alone RSE sessions delivered by a Brook specialist.

RSE focuses on giving young people the information they need to help them develop healthy, nurturing relationships of all kinds including:

- Families
- Respectful relationships, including friendships
- Online and media
- Being safe
- Intimate and sexual relationships, including sexual health

These areas of learning are taught within the context of family life taking care to ensure that there is no stigmatisation of children based on their home circumstances (families can include single parent families, LGBT parents, families headed by grandparents, adoptive parents, foster parents/carers amongst other structures) along with reflecting sensitively that some children may have a different structure of support around them (for example: looked after children or young carers).

7. Roles and responsibilities

7.1 The governing body

The governing body will approve the RSE policy, and hold the headteacher to account for its implementation.

7.2 The headteacher

The headteacher is responsible for ensuring that RSE is taught consistently across the school, and for managing requests to withdraw pupils from non-statutory components of RSE (see section 8).

7.3 Staff

Staff are responsible for:

- Delivering RSE in a sensitive way
- Modelling positive attitudes to RSE
- Monitoring progress
- Responding to the needs of individual pupils
- Responding appropriately to pupils whose parents wish them to be withdrawn from the non-statutory components of RSE

Staff do not have the right to opt out of teaching RSE. Staff who have concerns about teaching RSE are encouraged to discuss this with the headteacher.

7.4 Pupils

Pupils are expected to engage fully in RSE and, when discussing issues related to RSE, treat others with respect and sensitivity.

8. Parents' right to withdraw

Parents have the right to withdraw their children from the non-statutory components of sex education within RSE up to and until 3 terms before the child turns 16. After this point, if the child wishes to receive sex education rather than being withdrawn, the school will arrange this.

Requests for withdrawal should be put in writing using the form found in Appendix 3 of this policy and addressed to the headteacher.

A copy of withdrawal requests will be placed in the pupil's educational record. The headteacher (or his nominated representative) will discuss the request with parents and take appropriate action.

This will take the form of a meeting or correspondence to discuss which aspects of the curriculum has been withdrawn and to decide on how the time outside of this lesson(s) will be used.

Alternative work will be given to pupils who are withdrawn from sex education.

9. Training

Staff who are teaching RSE are given the option on online training through Brook, guidance documents from the PSHE association and an annual meeting with the PSHE coordinator in order to ensure they are trained to deliver the content required.

The headteacher will also invite visitors from outside the school, such as school nurses or sexual health professionals, to provide support and training to staff teaching RSE.

10. Monitoring arrangements

The delivery of RSE is monitored by Director of PE, Sport and PSHE through:

- Planning meetings before teaching of RSE begins for each year group

Pupils' development in RSE is monitored by class teachers as part of our internal assessment systems.

This policy will be reviewed by Director of PE, Sport and PSHE annually. At every review, the policy will be approved by the Headteacher and Trustees.
